

Why should democracies follow the first in history to outlaw political deception?

Welsh government commits to making lying in politics illegal

Labour administration says 'globally pioneering' legislation will be brought in before next Senedd elections in 2026

Welcome to the Campaign Against Political Deception

INTRO

CAPD is a UK based, not-for-profit association of lawyers, legislators and campaigners.

We developed a unique legal solution to counter political deception and its threat to democracy.

Campaign Against Political Deception

In 5 minutes you will know ;

- 1. Why and how the legal solution works.
- 2. Why democracies should follow Wales.
- 3. How with your support, they will.

WHY?
are lies a threat to freedom.

LIBERTY

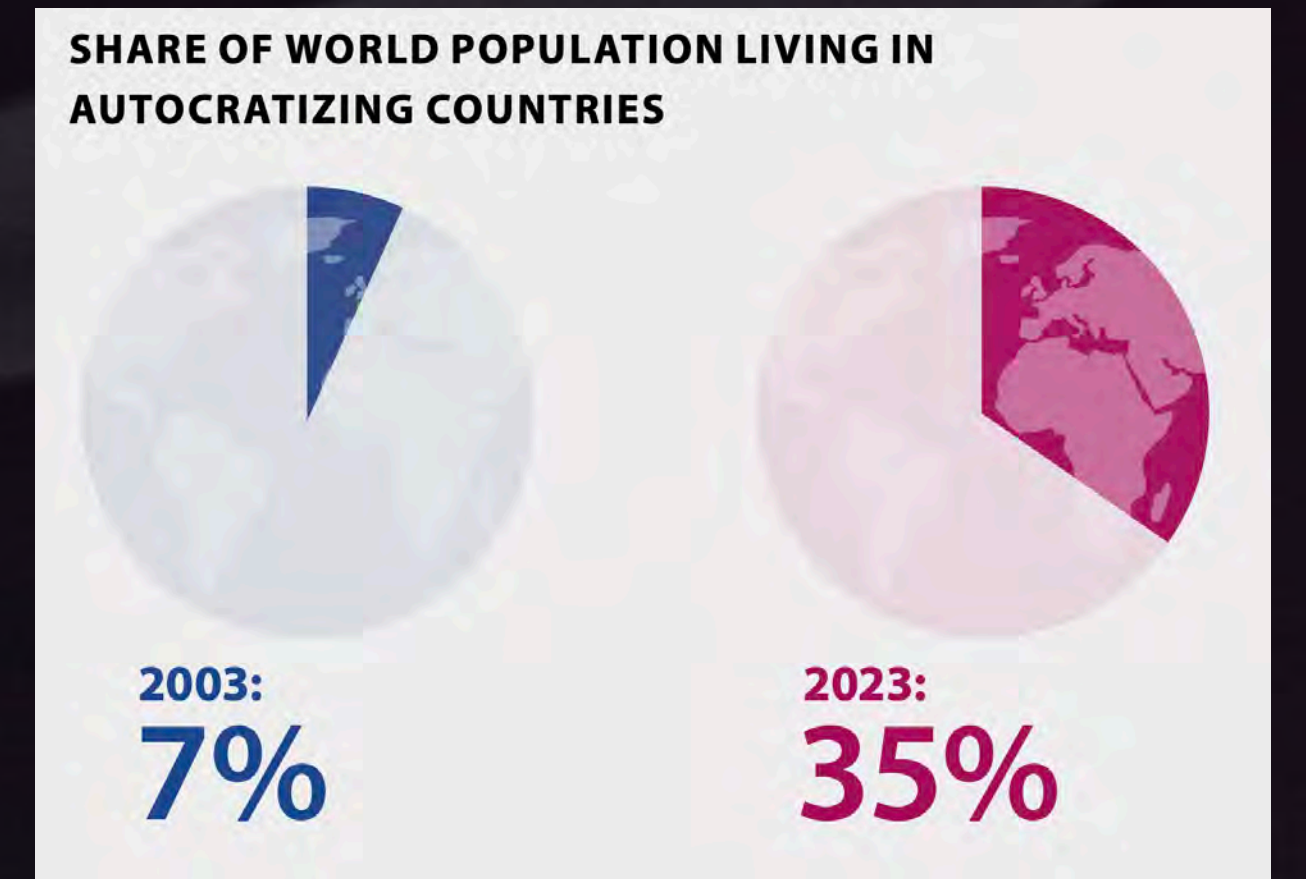

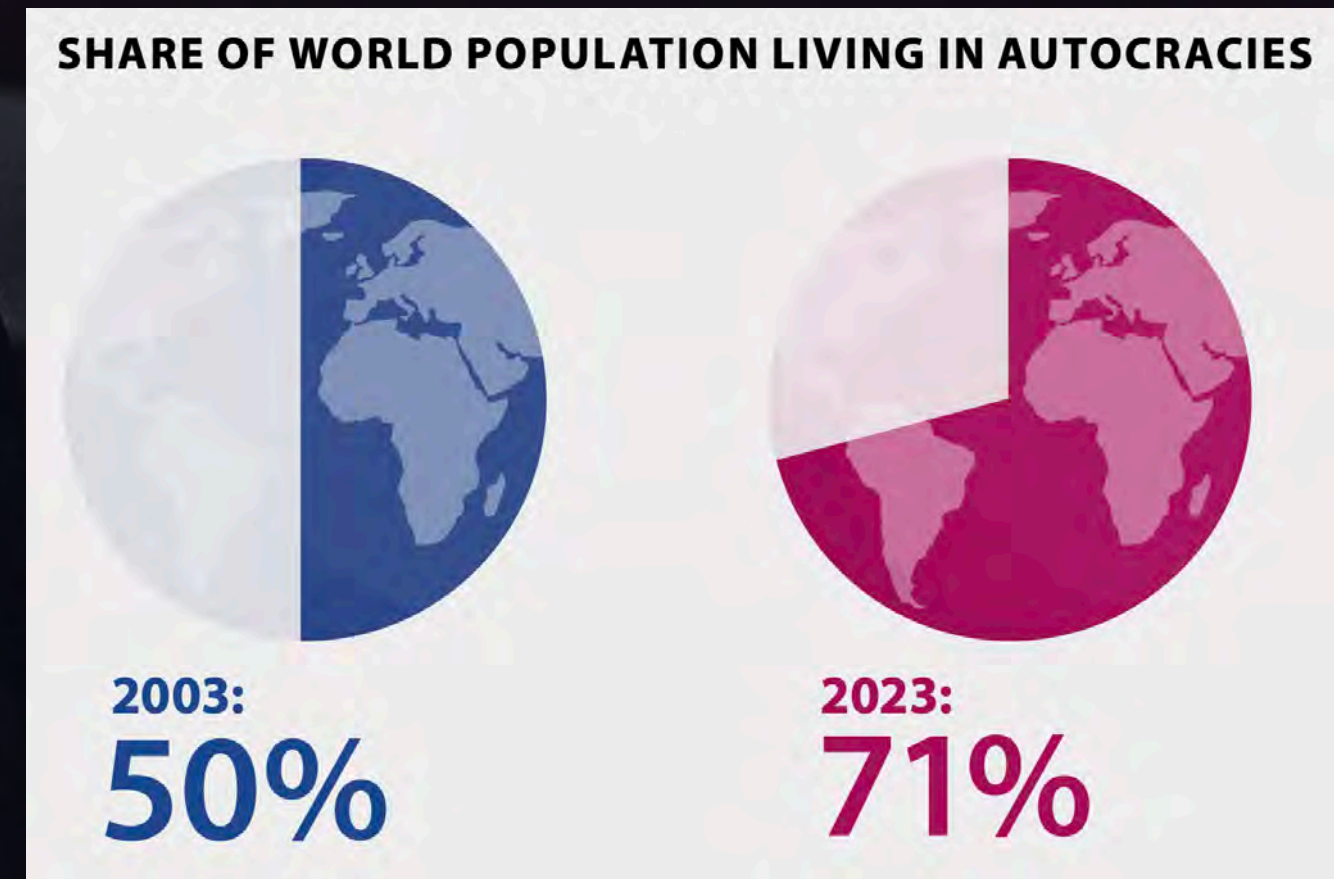

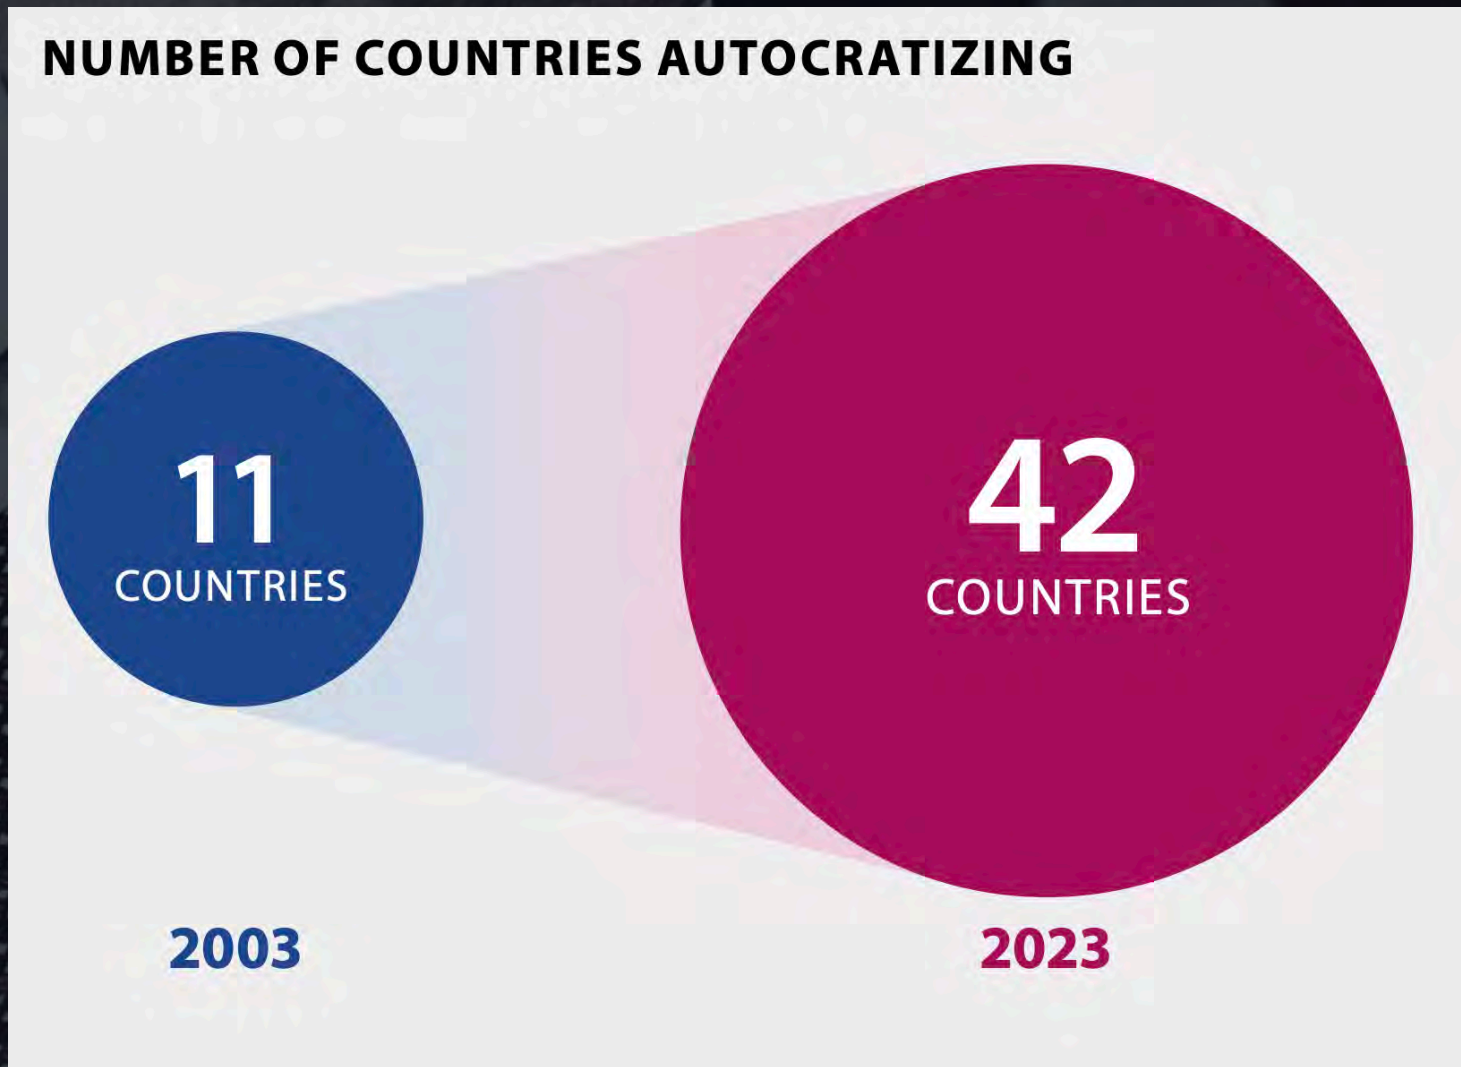

BACKGROUND

Autocrat noun : a ruler with unlimited power, or someone who demands that people completely obey them

Cambridge English Dictionary

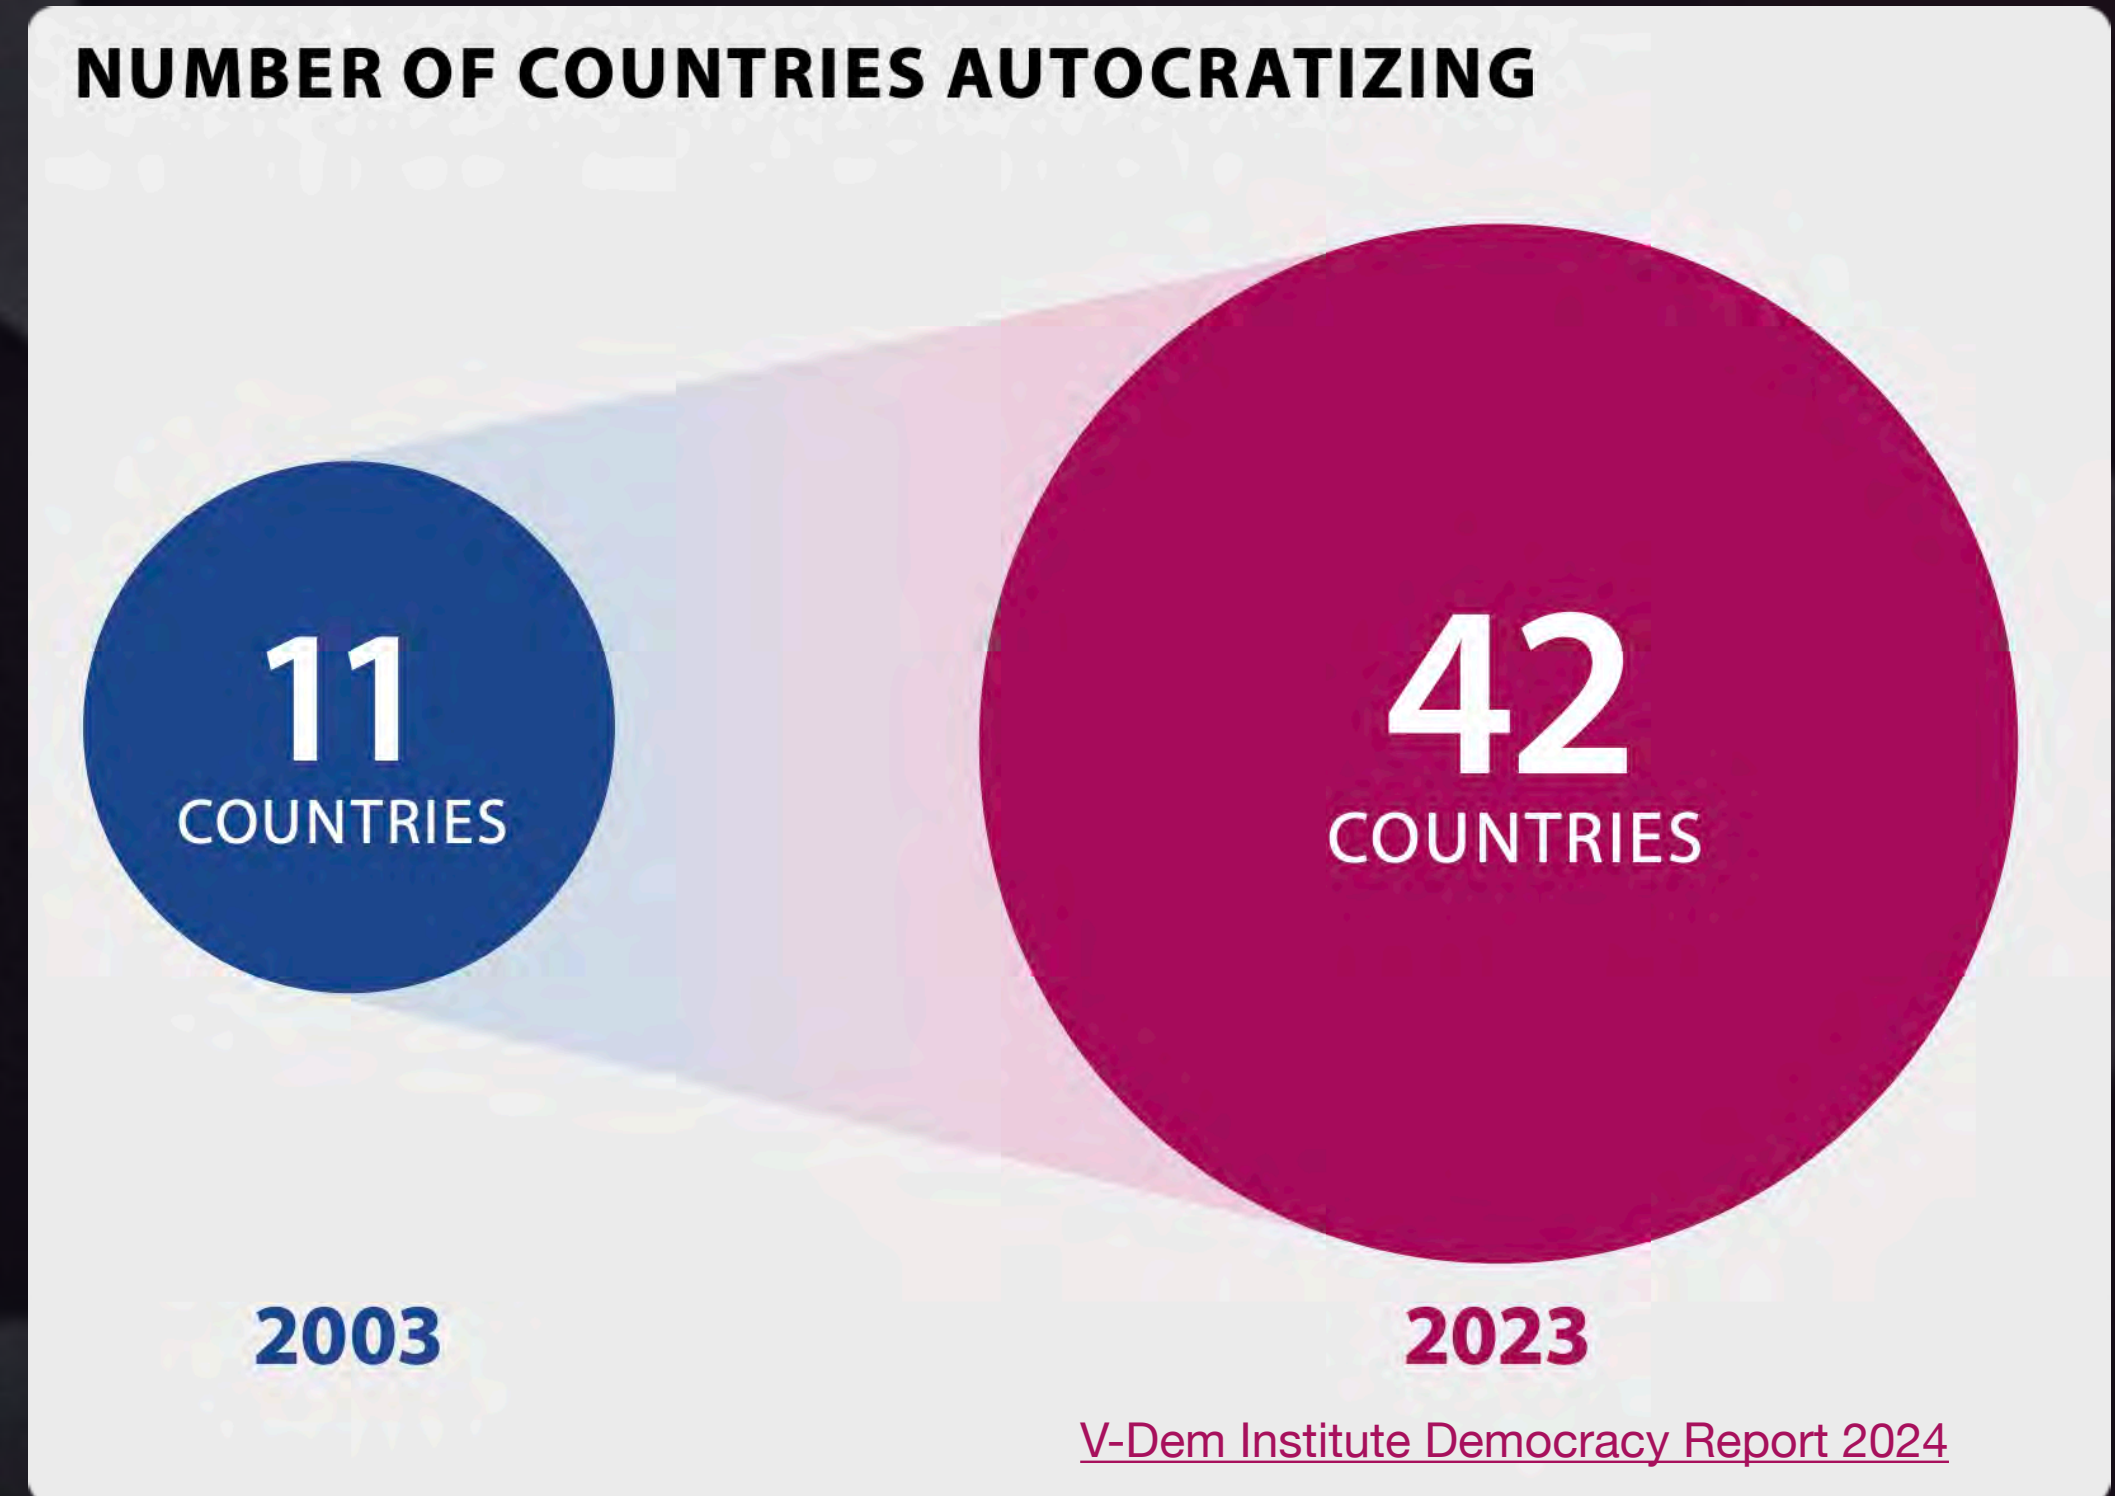

the rise of autocrats and decline of democracy is well recorded*

*V-Dem Institute Democracy Report 2024

Democracies struggle to counter “autocratization”

because

Autocrats change democracies into autocracies using the freedoms democracies insist on freedom of speech gives autocrats their main weapon of choice...

But their purpose is NOT to convince you they're telling the truth...

...Autocrats lie to erode public trust

Here's how "autocratization" works:

Step 1 : Insist "establishment" is dishonest

Step 2 : Win election

Step 3 : Replace establishment

Trump blasts his trial judges.
Then his fans call for violence.

A REUTERS SPECIAL REPORT

The screenshot shows a forum thread with several comments. The comments are as follows:

- couranto: This judge must be arrested the minute Trump is inaugurated.
- DJT_MFers1: Yep, I hope Trump has that judge hanged for Treason.
- SixSixSix14: Punishment for treason is death
- SPEDMan64: Needs to be strangled with piano wire before he makes it to the hangman.
- Live_free_or_die_55: Gallows!!! For Traitors !!!
- Daveyclimber: Judge needs a hatchet to the face.
- A_Colostomy_Bag: And his whore daughter!
- Allister 19 points 10 hours ago: Fuck sanctions, disbar them all!
- TheOne1 25 points 10 hours ago: Fuck disbarment, hang them all
- Framus 14 points 10 hours ago: Fuck hanging, dismember them all!
- you_know_GOAT 8 points 9 hours ago: you are all Frens. I can't wait for real Justice.
- Criticallythinking 7 points 9 hours ago: Fuck dismembering. Woodchip them all.

Step 1

a. Make absurd statement of fact

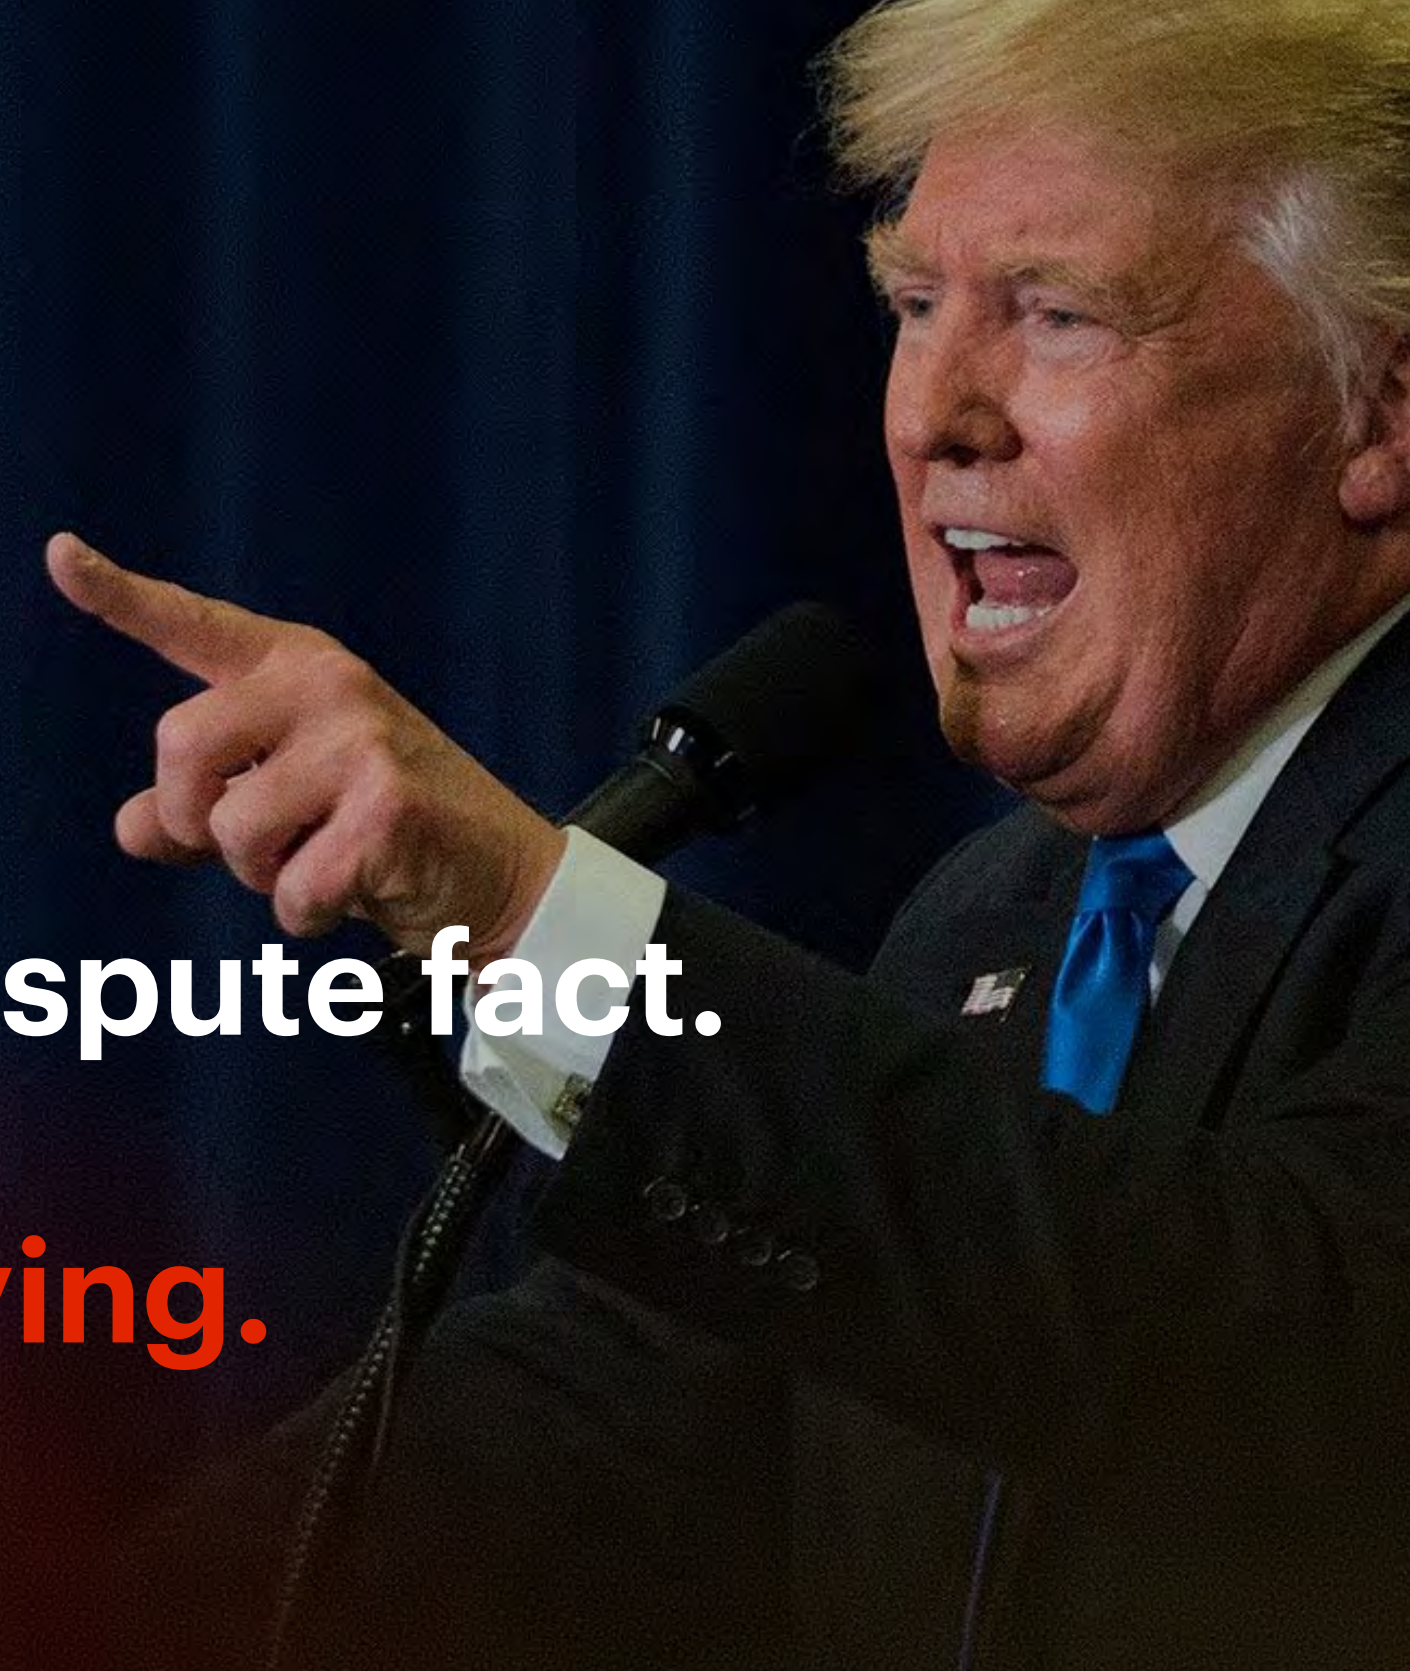

b. Opponents, media, public officials/servants dispute fact.

c. Double down and accuse “establishment” of lying.

d. REPEAT b & c

Autocrats want to be called liars.
That’s why Autocrats double down on lies,
*even when proven untrue.

This ensures the question of “who’s the liar” and disputes over simple facts stay unresolved.

Step 2

Without agreement on the facts, voters distrust politics and the establishment. They either disengage or have little choice but to vote on personality and promises.

If the autocrat wins the election...

Step 3

...They can now claim a mandate to replace the judges, journalists and public servants they accused of dishonesty.

THAT'S HOW YOU "AUTOCRACIZE"...

MAKE AMERICA

GAIN!

... And democracies don't inspire public trust. Especially when politicians choose courts to regulate deception for everyone but themselves.

...OUTRAGEOUS!!! The public won't trust politicians judging THEMSELVES !!??

Fraud Act 2006

2006 CHAPTER 35

An Act to make provision for, and in connection with, criminal law relating to obtaining services dishonestly.

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the authority of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the Commons in this behalf lawfully assembled, that the following provisions shall have effect as if they had been enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, in Her Majesty's first Parliament after the passing of this Act.

Fraud

1 Fraud

(1) A person is guilty of fraud if he is in breach of subsection (2) (which provide for different ways of committing fraud).

(2) The sections are—
(a) section 2 (fraud by false representation),
(b) section 3 (fraud by failing to disclose information),
(c) section 4 (fraud by abuse of position).

(3) A person who is guilty of fraud is liable—
(a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or a fine (or both);
(b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 10 years or a fine (or both).

(4) Subsection (3)(a) applies in relation to a person who is guilty of fraud in relation to a contract as if there were a reference to 6 months.

Misrepresentation Act 1967

1967 CHAPTER 7

Damages for misrepresentation.

(1) Where a person has entered into a contract after a misrepresentation has been made to him by another party thereto and as a result thereof he has suffered damage, if the person making the misrepresentation would be liable to damages in respect thereof had the misrepresentation been made fraudulently, that person shall be liable notwithstanding that the misrepresentation was not made fraudulently if he proves that he had reasonable ground to believe and did believe up to the time the contract was made that the facts represented were true.

(2) Where a person has entered into a contract after a misrepresentation has been made to him otherwise than fraudulently, and he would be entitled, by reason of the misrepresentation, to rescind the contract, then, if it is claimed, in any proceedings in respect of the contract, that the contract ought to be or has been rescinded, the court or arbitrator may declare the contract subsisting and award damages in lieu of rescission, if of opinion that it would be equitable to do so, having regard to the nature of the misrepresentation and the loss that would be caused by it if the contract were rescinded, all as to the loss that would be so caused as to the loss that would be so caused as to the loss that would be so caused.

The legislation uses an elegantly
SIMPLE LEGAL MECHANISM

*“14 days to clarify, correct or retract a challenged

Members of the Senedd described it as a historic moment that would combat the “existential threat” that lying in politics poses to democracy.

The Labour-led Welsh government has committed to introduce “globally pioneering” legislation that would in effect make lying in politics there illegal.

TIMELINE in WALES

- July 2024 ● Commitment
 - Sept 2024 ● Legislative process begins
(Committee stages etc.)
 - Mar 2025 ● 1st reading & Vote
 - Mar 2026 ● Final reading & Vote
 - April 2026 ● Legislation goes live

AND NOW WHAT ?

CAPD's immediate objectives are ;

1. Ensure the Welsh legislation is delivered.
-for 2026, as promised by the Welsh government.

2. Lobby UK Parliament to ;
-roll out the legislation in the UK

3. Create grass-roots momentum international and national support
has a massive impact on politicians

WHAT CAN I DO?

- Ask friends, family & colleagues to:
- Sign the petition
- Share on social media
- Download & display posters

Visible grass-roots support combined with CAPD directly lobbying politicians was the key to our success in Wales.

Adam Price MS

Legislative lead

Born into a Welsh mining family Adam has served as a Member of Parliament, Member of the Senedd and party leader (Plaid Cymru - the first out gay man to lead a UK political party). As a Fulbright scholar he studied at Harvard - becoming a fellow of the Centre for International Development at the John F. Kennedy School of Government.

An accomplished speaker and communicator, Adam contributes regular to The Guardian, The Sunday Times, Channel Four and Hay Literature Festival on a wide variety of issues. As a campaigner Adam first pursued honesty and transparency in politics as an MP when he uncovered the Mittal Affair in 2002 where the Steel magnate Lakshmi Mittal, a major Labour Party donor, lobbied Tony Blair to help purchase Romania's steel industry.
